

DNREC's Division of Fish & Wildlife seeking great shots from Delaware hunters for annual photo contest

Digital entries accepted now through Jan. 31

DOVER – With hunting season in full swing, DNREC's Division of Fish & Wildlife reminds hunters of its annual Delaware Hunting Photo Contest. The winning photograph will be featured on the cover of the 2019/2020 Delaware Hunting and Trapping Guide, with the top five photographs presented inside the guide.

The contest is open to all Delaware residents, with a maximum of three entries per person. Photographs should be submitted digitally at Fish & Wildlife photo contest. Entries are being accepted now through Thursday, Jan. 31, 2019.

A judging panel comprised of DNREC staff will be looking for technically-suitable, well-composed photos that best portray this year's contest theme of "Our Hunting Tradition." To be eligible, photographs must have been taken in Delaware and depict lawful hunting activities.

Complete contest rules and information, entry forms, and instructions for uploading entries can be found at Fish & Wildlife photo contest. For more information, please contact Jennifer Childears at 302-739-9910 or email jennifer.childears@delaware.gov.
